María Cristina Kasem and Ricardo Mandolini, organizers of SIME 2016, would like to warmly thank the extraordinary work of listening of the honourable Jury, who patiently evaluated all the submissions.

We would also like to mention the high level of the pieces submitted, reason because it was extremely difficult to make the final selection.

The other finalist works will be considered for performances at future concerts and festivals we will organize.

We congratulate the six selected composers.

Best regards to all participants.
